The Hotel George is located at 15 E. Street NW, which is between North Capitol Street and New Jersey Avenue.

The Nearest Metro Stop is Union Station, walk towards the Capitol Building, pass the reflecting pool, go up the steps to the Senate Garage Fountain.

Parking may be available at Metro Station.

Taking a taxi to the Senate side of the Capitol Bldg. on Constitution Ave. may be the easiest way to go without steps.

The Healing Exchange BRAIN TRUST is celebrating 10 years of providing information and support via the internet for patients, families and professionals coping with brain tumors. We have presented the Brain Tumor Vigil on Capitol Hill since 2003. Please visit our website www.braintrust.org for more information.

Samuel Hassenbusch, III, MD, PhD is a brain surgeon from MD Anderson Cancer Center recently diagnosed with a highly malignant glioblastoma brain tumor who has been featured in major news media. We look forward to his insightful remarks from both sides of the brain tumor knife.

David M. Bailey, renowned singer-songwriter, is a winner of the prestigious Kerrville Folk Festival and a 10-year glioblastoma survivor. He sings inspirational songs of comfort, hope and faith. We encourage you to read more about his remarkable journey of loss and love at www.davidmbailey.com.

We have invited all Members of Congress to join with us and have favorable replies from several. We are eager to confirm selected members as speakers at the event.

Our 2007 Brain Tumor Vigil is sponsored by a grant from

The VIP Reception is sponsored in part by a donation from fashion designer Kay Unger and individual donors, including contributions for tickets valued at $100 each. Donations of any amount to support this event and our other programs are welcome. Please use the enclosed envelope or visit our website: www.braintrust.org/donate Contributions made for the Vigil will be listed in the Vigil Program.

We are proud to share our Vigil location with our friends at the Brain Tumor Action Network and the "Hidden Under Our Hats" National Brain Tumor Awareness Project. Celebrity hats include: Olympic Medalist, Scott Hamilton, baseball-great, Tug McGraw and famed attorney, Johnnie Cochran. Anyone may add a hat to the exhibit by bringing it to the site or by contacting BTAN. For more information visit their website: <http://www.btan.org/hats.php>
